HOW I LOST MY MINK, BY A STRIP GIRL

STRIPPER Peki D'Oslo always left her key in the lock outside her door while she was in her hotel room, she told a court yesterday.

But one day the key was stolen. And after Miss D'Oslo left for work, her room was ransacked.

Her mink stole, £200 in cash and a flick-knife were taken. Miss D'Oslo, now appearing as guest star at Raymond's Revuebar in Soho, told her story to magistrates at Marylebone.

She discovered the theft when she returned to the hotel—the Leinster Towers, in Bayswater—at 3 a.m.

Before the court were two men who auburn-haired Miss D'Oslo said were introduced to her when she arrived in London from Paris, about three months ago.

Leigh Davies, 20, of Gleebe-place, Chelsea, is accused of breaking into her room and stealing cash and property worth £400.

His friend, 21-year-old John Scott-Lewis, of the same address, is accused of receiving £125.

Both men were described as unemployed.

Brooch

Detective - Constable William Hewetson said Scott-Lewis told him:

"I know Peki, but I don't know anything about the break-in."

A brooch Scott-Lewis gave to a girl called Linda Garland was identified as Miss D'Oslo's, the detective added.

Both men were sent for trial and reserved their defence.

Stripper Peki D'Oslo . . . "My flick-knife was stolen," she claims.

BEDROOM 'TRAP' YOUTH JAILED

A YOUTH who broke into the house of Coventry City goalkeeper Bob Wesson with intent to rape his wife—a former policewoman—was yesterday jailed for three years. The youth, John Ball, a 19-year-old labourer, of Lilac-avenue, Coventry, pleaded guilty at Coventry Quarter Sessions. The Recorder, Mr. Bernard Caulfield, said Ball had "set the stage" for raping Mrs. Wesson, 28. When she entered her bedroom she found four ties fixed to the bed. Ball was wearing a mask.

Mrs. Wesson screamed and Ball escaped.

'After suffering for months... the relief is unbelievable'

wrote Mrs. B. Sherriff of Blackpool

Mrs. B. Sherriff is an active Blackpool housewife who enjoys gardening. But when she suffered from 'acute pain in her leg' because of rheumatic pain, she turned to Fynnon Salt. Fynnon Salt has brought relief to thousands of rheumatic sufferers. For Fynnon contains salts just like the medicinal waters of famous spas. They have always been known to have a beneficial effect on people suffering from rheumatic conditions, and Fynnon Salt works the self-same way.

Female constipation 'Mil-Par' takes the worry away

Sometimes you have to take a laxative more often than you would like. Particularly when you have been told you must avoid undue strain. At these times it is important to choose a laxative that you know is gentle. 'Mil-Par'. Made to a unique formula, it relieves constipation gently and thoroughly: even after short periods of frequent use it will not interfere with a return to normal regularity. This is because it is the only laxative blended from 'Milk of Magnesia' and liquid paraffin, both of which ingredients have the fullest medical backing and are widely used in hospitals and clinics. Because of its exceptional gentleness 'Mil-Par' can safely be given to children, too. Just give the smaller doses prescribed for them. Always keep 'Mil-Par' in the house. Available from all chemists.
